

Building the Foundation

- ☐ When and How to Use Teams
- ☐ The Roles of Today's Leaders
- ☒ Personal Mission, Vision and Values
- ☐ Self-Assessment
- ☐ Organizational Culture and Leadership
- ☐ Launching New Teams
- ☐ Team Development
- ☐ Effective Meetings

Personal Mission, Vision & Values (1/3)

- The important of Mission, Vision and Values in Personal Leadership
- Mission: Defining My Own Purpose
- Vision: How Do I Want to be seen
- Values: What characteristics do I want to have as an efficient team leader?

Personal Mission, Vision & Values (2/3)

- Values

Respect	Innovation	Cooperation
Integrity	Honesty	Competition
Loyalty	Trust	Friendship
Caring	Accept risks	Persistent
Communicator	Politically astute	Humorous
Level-headed	Future focused

Personal Mission, Vision & Values (3/3)

- How the Mission, Vision and Values My influence the Team
 - Positive aspects?
 - Negative consequences?
 - What is the impact?
- Connect Organization' s Mission, Vision and Values to Team Leader' s

Building the Foundation

- ☐ When and How to Use Teams
- ☐ The Roles of Today's Leaders
- ☐ Personal Mission, Vision and Values
- ☒ Self-Assessment
- ☐ Organizational Culture and Leadership
- ☐ Launching New Teams
- ☐ Team Development
- ☐ Effective Meetings

Self-Assessment (1/4)

- Self-Assessment of Potential Strengths and Development Areas as a Team Leader
- Benefits:
 - Provides insight into how the team leader is perceived by co-workers
 - Helps the leader consider how to capitalize on strengths
 - Contributes information on possible development areas for the leader
 - Sets a good example of need for self-development and change for the rest of the team
 - Can bring the team leader to make some changes in the way he/she leads for the future

Self-Assessment (2/4)

- Soliciting Feedback from Others on the Team Leader's Effectiveness
- Obstacles To Receiving Feedback
 - "This will not be anonymous because the team leader will know my handwriting"
 - "I like the team leader and I do not want to hurt his or her feelings, so I will just rate everything as a strength"
 - "I dislike the team leader and I do not think he/she is good at everything"
 - "Why should we do this? The team leader will not change anyway"

Self-Assessment (3/4)

- Current Functioning of the Team and the Team Leader's Impact on These Areas

Team Strengths:

- Focused on quality
- Clear goals
- Effective meetings

Team Leader's Strengths:

- Sets high standards for performance
- Motivated to achieve
- Good communicator

Common or Related Strengths:

- Good communication skills of TL contribute to goals being clear and meetings going smoothly
- Possibility that TL may communicate too assertively such the team members are not given enough chances to contribute their ideas

Self-Assessment (4/4)

- Sharing and Discussing the Leader's Strengths and Development Areas with the Team
 - Share everything, team members to draw their conclusions
 - Share highlights and conclusions from the data
 - Share his or her own conclusions drawn from the data
- Action Planning
 - Set challenging goals, but achievable
 - Set specific rather than vague or general goal
 - Set measurable goals
 - Establish timely goals and plans
 - Set action plan relevant to be the functioning of team
 - No more than 3 objectives a time
 - Set at least one stretching goal that is easy enough in steps

Building the Foundation

- ☐ When and How to Use Teams
- ☐ The Roles of Today's Leaders
- ☐ Personal Mission, Vision and Values
- ☐ Self-Assessment
- ☒ Organizational Culture and Leadership
- ☐ Launching New Teams
- ☐ Team Development
- ☐ Effective Meetings

Organizational Culture and Leadership (1/3)

- What is Organizational Culture?
 - Beliefs
 - Norms
 - Assumptions
- What are your organizational culture items
 - How it behaves
 - What is the impact

Organizational Culture and Leadership (2/3)

- Understanding the organization's Culture and the Defining the Team's Culture
 - Constructive Culture
 - Aggressive/Defensive Culture
 - Passive/Defensive Culture

Organizational Culture and Leadership (3/3)

