

Getting the Tools

❑ Facilitation Skills

- ❑ Active Listening
- ❑ Problem Solving
- ❑ Authority and Decision Making
- ❑ The Use of Power and Influence
- ❑ Resolving Conflict in the Team
- ❑ Bringing New Members into the Team

Facilitation Skill

- Content

- Understanding Facilitation
- Task and Process-Oriented Facilitation Techniques
- Approaches to Handling Challenges with Facilitation
- Gaining Confidence in Facilitation
- Establish a Formal Facilitator Role in a Team facilitate make (an action or process) easy or easier

“New Oxford American Dictionary”

Facilitation Skill (1/4)

- Task-Oriented Facilitation Techniques

- Orienting to keep focus on-track
- Initiating /Contributing
- Seeking Information or Opinions
- Giving Information or Opinions
- Coordinating
- Clarifying and Elaborating
- Summarizing
- Consensus Testing

Facilitation Skill (2/4)

- Process-Oriented Facilitation Techniques
 - Encouraging
 - Harmonizing (hài hoà)
 - Gate keeping (trọng tài)
 - Compromising (thỏa hiệp)
 - Standard Setting & Testing
 - Summarizing Group Feeling
 - Diagnosing
 - Relieving Tension(Giảm căng thẳng)

Facilitation Skill (3/4)

- Challenges with Facilitation
 - Criticizing/Blaming (chỉ trích)
 - Withdrawing (Không muốn đóng góp)
 - Blocking (ngăn chặn)
 - Withholding (đưa giải pháp không hoàn toàn)
 - Interrupting
 - Attacking
 - Arguing
 - Dominating (áp đặt)
 - Rambling (thiếu mạch lạc)

Facilitation Skill (4/4)

- Gaining Confidence in Facilitation

- Skill Development

Active Listening	Maintain Team Focus
Time Management	Encourage Open Comm
Problem Solving	Meeting Mgnt
Exploring & Resolving Differences	Knowing how to ask question
Handling challenging people	Clarify and summarize Decision-making Techniques

- Practice

- Feedback

Getting the Tools

- ☐ Facilitation Skills
- ☒ Active Listening
- ☐ Problem Solving
- ☐ Authority and Decision Making
- ☐ The Use of Power and Influence
- ☐ Resolving Conflict in the Team
- ☐ Bringing New Members into the Team

Active Listening (1/5)

- The Value of Creating a Listening Env in Team “Seek to understand before seeking to be understood”
- For people
 - Build Trust and strong working relationship
- For business
 - Improve Decision Making
 - Enhance problem solving
 - Get effective conflict resolution
 - Increase performance

Active Listening (2/5)

- Key factors that impact a Listening Environment from Truly Listening
 - Filter or Perception
 - Attitudes, beliefs, experiences and assumptions
 - Talking
 - Listening with intent to reply, than to understand
 - Interpreting
 - Simply understand the message, than understand the intent or meanings underneath

Active Listening (3/5)

- The Team leader's listening tool kit – listening tips
 - Listen for the total message
 - The nonverbal message
 - The power of questions
 - Open-ended questions
 - Closed-ended questions
 - Leading questions
 - And reflective listening
 - Reflective statements
 - Paraphrasing
 - Summary statement

Active Listening (4/5)

- Listening traps to avoid
 - False listening
 - Pretend listening
 - Selective listening
- Common pitfalls
 - Interrupt the message
 - Show impatience
 - Jump to solution early
 - More talk than listening
 - Turn out because of past experiences
 - Lock onto an idea as the only way
 - Defending decision

Active Listening (5/5)

- Conduct a listening session
 - Send out agenda before the meeting
 - Reinforce the team's ground rules
 - Purpose: to listen, not to solve
 - Create an open atmosphere
 - Listen.. Ask ... listen ... act
 - Thank for team opinion and indicate next step
- Listening: Self- and Team Assessement

Listening Session Ground Rules

1

State your opinion openly and honestly

2

No negative actions will be taken as a result of the meeting

3

Give others space to express their thoughts

4

Be respectful of others

5

Suspend urge to solve the problem

6

Focus on the problem, not on people

7

Avoid the “blame game”

8

Avoid personal attacks