

Getting the Tools

- ☐ Facilitation Skills
- ☐ Active Listening
- ☐ Problem Solving
- ☒ Authority and Decision Making
- ☐ The Use of Power and Influence
- ☐ Resolving Conflict in the Team
- ☐ Bringing New Members into the Team

Authority and Decision Making (1/4)

- The Rational behind transferring authority and decision making to the team
 - Faster response to crises
 - Quicker turnaround on customer inquiries
 - Stronger problem solving
 - Improve overall performance
- What do you think happens if a team doesn't understand its level of authority or decision-making power

Authority and Decision Making (2/4)

A Decision-Making framework for teams

- All the approaches must be utilized
- It's not the best to make all decision autocratically or in a participative manner
- Effective leader must have ability to choose correctly the best way to make given decision
- Team leader and team must possess the knowledge and skills to make the decision in the manner chosen

Style	Leader role	Team involvement
Tell	Leader decides	Low
Consult	Leader asks input	Mid
Collaborate	Team + leader together	High
Delegate	Team decides	Very High

Authority and Decision Making (3/4)

- Decision by consensus
 - The goals are to:
 - Achieve the best possible decision or solution
 - Get maximum support from those who have to implement and/or live with the decision
 - The team may help to get final decision by:
 - Provide necessary information the may be missing
 - Teaching team how to make decision
 - Give input to the team

Authority and Decision Making (4/4)

New Decision-Making norms and values

- Actively listening to and questioning teammates to understand better one another's perspective
- Working toward consensus and agreement as opposed to protecting personal turf or priorities
- Encouraging input and collaboration from all team members and other expert resources
- Supporting and implementing team decisions and actions inside and outside of our regular meeting

Getting the Tools

- ☐ Facilitation Skills
- ☐ Active Listening
- ☐ Problem Solving
- ☐ Authority and Decision Making
- ☒ The Use of Power and Influence
- ☐ Resolving Conflict in the Team
- ☐ Bringing New Members into the Team

The Use and of Power and Influence (1/5)

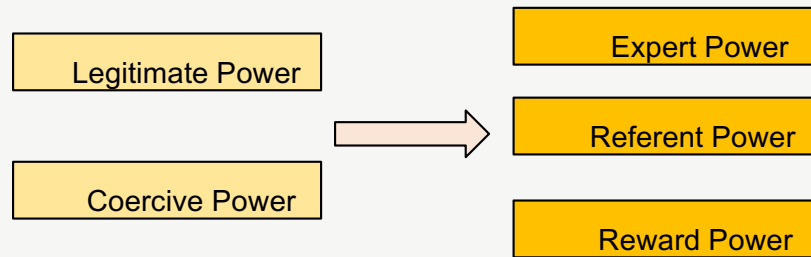

- Understanding different types of power

- Reward power
- Coercive power
- Legitimate power
- Referent power
- Expert power

Type	Based on	Effect
Reward	Incentive	Motivation
Coercive	Fear	Compliance
Legitimate	Position	Formal authority
Referent	Trust/respect	Influence
Expert	Knowledge	Credibility

The Use and of Power and Influence (1/5)

- Developing additional sources of power

The Use and of Power and Influence (3/5)

- Understanding Influence

Influence Approach	Influence Direction
Control	One-way (Mine)
Relinquishing	One-way (Your)
Developmental	Two-way (Ours)
Defensive	No-way (No one's)

- Application of influence: What & When

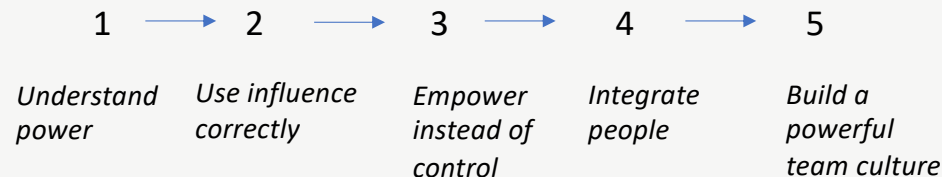

The Use and of Power and Influence (4/5)

- Life in the middle: The Unique Challenges And Opportunities of the team leaders
 - Use the system power of integration of TLs
 - Be aware of strategies of Empowering life
 - Facilities versus Fix
 - Forgiveness versus permission
 - Integrate with other team leader

The Use and of Power and Influence (5/5)

- Create powerful team
 - Encourage individuation in the team
 - Encourage “both/and” thinking
 - Meet together regularly

“Sustainable leadership comes from empowering teams, not centralizing power”

Getting the Tools

- ☐ Facilitation Skills
- ☐ Active Listening
- ☐ Problem Solving
- ☐ Authority and Decision Making
- ☐ The Use of Power and Influence
- ☒ Resolving Conflict in the Team
- ☐ Bringing New Members into the Team

Resolving and Conflict in team (1/9)

- What is Conflict?
 - Conflict involves some kind of disagreement
 - Some degree of win-lose potential for the parties
- Why is Conflict an IMPORTANT ISSUE?
 - For some: Conflict is bad, should be avoided
 - For others: open Conflict is the norm, common
 - For TLs: Deal with Conflict such that it does not detract from performance of team, but can help team grow and mature

Resolving and Conflict in team (2/9)

- Productive vs Unproductive Conflict

- Unproductive Conflict

- Destroys relationship
 - Results in bad decision
 - Waste human energy to end it

- Productive Conflict

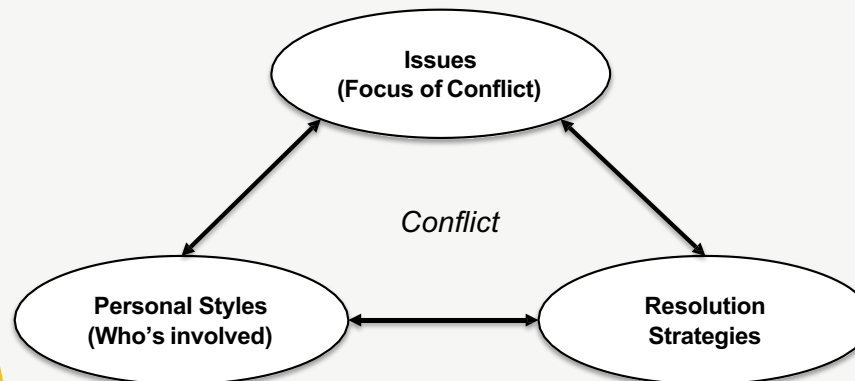

- Fuels learning and growth

→ Try to manage conflict and direct it towards positive end

Productive	Unproductive
Focus on issue	Focus on people
Curious	Defensive
Seeks understanding	Seeks winning
Improves thinking	Damages trust
Generates options	Creates camps
Ends with alignment	Ends with resentment

Resolving and Conflict in team (3/9)

- The variables in conflict
 - Issues: Center of the conflict
 - Personal styles: Aggressive, Passive or Compromiser
 - Resolution strategies: Way to resolve the conflict

1. What is the actual issue?
(problem)
2. What personalities/styles are involved?
(people)
3. What is the best resolution mechanism?
(process)

"When conflict becomes emotional, people stop solving problems and start protecting themselves."

Resolving and Conflict in team (4/9)

- The variables in conflict: Issues

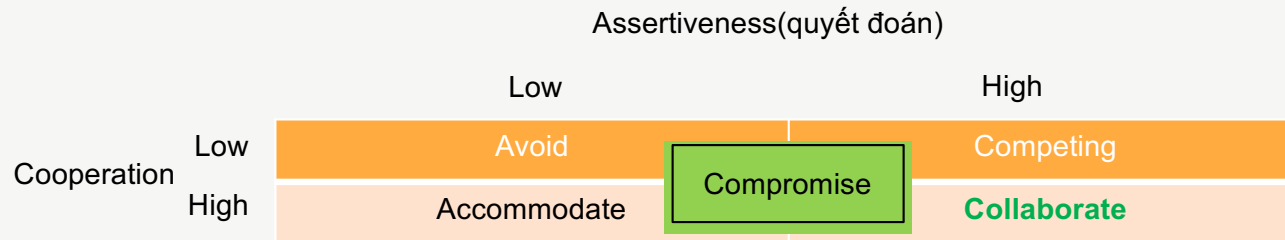

Side A	Side B
Personality	Facts
Values	Plan/options

Interests

- For Side A: Promote understanding and acceptance of differences
 - Acknowledge: there are differences likely remain
 - Get understanding of the other's values and appreciate the person's right to hold those values
- For Side B: Resolvable
- For Interests: Depending on the situation

Resolving and Conflict in team (5/9)

- The variables in conflict: Personal styles

Resolving and Conflict in team (6/9)

- The variables in conflict: Resolution Strategies
 - Personality & Values:
 - Listening, understanding and open to diversity
 - Facts:
 - Identify their “facts” (assumptions)
 - Agree on what information is true, resolve differences
 - Agree on the best source of information
 - Get a plan to obtain the info. Stop discussion

Resolving and Conflict in team (7/9)

- The variables in conflict: Resolution Strategies
 - Plan/Options:
 - Avoid getting the actual conflict point
 - Problem-solving/Integrative model approach
 - Interests: most complex
 - Integration negotiation model: shift conflict debate from position to interest

Resolving and Conflict in team (8/9)

- Conflict Resolution Process

- Step 1: Identify the issue or source of conflict
- Step 2: Set a goal or objective
- Step 3: Identify each party's interests and share them together
- Step 4: Generate strategies/solution by brainstorming
- Step 5: Evaluate solutions and select an alternative from step 4 by developing a set of criteria for selection
- Step 6: Develop an action plan
- Step 7: Learn from the experience – by debriefing after completion from 2-4 months in ~3 hour facilitated session with involved people

Resolving and Conflict in team (9/9)

- The Team Leader's conflict style
- The leader's style sets the tone and direction for the team – What are your preferred styles?
- Implications of the team leader's style for the team
- Resolution strategy should foster cooperation and teamwork
- Resolution strategy should move toward collaboration
- In high-performance team, collaborative problem-solving approach is best for strategies and interest ones
- Try to use Six Hat: Thinking in finding resolution

Getting the Tools

- ☐ Facilitation Skills
- ☐ Active Listening
- ☐ Problem Solving
- ☐ Authority and Decision Making
- ☐ The Use of Power and Influence
- ☐ Resolving Conflict in the Team
- ☒ Bringing New Members into the Team

Bringing new member into the team (1/5)

- Assessing How the team currently operates
- Assess current team culture: Norms
- Assess current Role of team members
- Assess the necessity of new member, risk of conflict and future challenges

Bringing new member into the team (2/5)

- What happened with membership in team?

Bringing new member into the team (3/5)

Involving the team in choosing a new member:

- Suggest people for consideration
- Present the reasons and criteria for new member
- First review of new applicants' information
- Be spokesperson for the team describing team activities to potential candidate
- Involve interviewing process

Bringing new member into the team (4/5)

Orienting the new team member to the team

- Share the assessment of team culture and role
- Meeting to introduce and share information about the new member
- Have a new member shadow one or several existing team members
- Ask existing team members to talk to new member about tasks, preference, challenges and watch out
- Request existing team members to buddy up with new member for a period of time
- Hold a group lunch for the whole team to talk informally

Bringing new member into the team (5/5)

- Anticipating and Acting upon potential problems during the adjustment period
 - Misunderstanding in communication
 - Fear of speaking up
 - Stepping on toes
 - Power struggles